

Each line is one cell of fixed (W, Q) measured at 5×41 , 10×100 and 18×275 GeV, so the colour-frame physics is identical along it and only the laboratory frame changes. With an absolute opening-angle cut the observable collapses as the beams get harder: the hemisphere collimates below θ_{cut} and its branchings stop being counted. Median exponent -0.474 .