

Median and central 68% of the current hemisphere's lab momentum against Q in slices of W . DIS has two kinematic degrees of freedom; once W (hence the colour-frame energy) is fixed, the boost of the current system into the lab is a function of Q alone. Unlike $e^+e^- \rightarrow ZZ$, there is no independent boost knob.