

The same cells and beam configurations for the leading anti- k_T jet clustered in the laboratory at $R = 1.2$, the radius EIC studies use: median slope $+0.011$, against $+0.22$ for the inclusive curve (grey). A plain lab cone of sensible size is already frame independent; the $R = 0.4$ of the reference paper is the worst case, shown in the radius scan.