

The same cells and beam configurations, now for the leading anti- k_T $R = 0.4$ jet clustered in the lab: median slope +0.04, and the lowest-energy configuration breaks away in the higher- Q cells. The boost changes which particles the cone holds.